

Sweetheart, do you know the secret of success yet? No daddy, do you want to know the secret of success? Yes daddy.

I need you to plan to stay in school and get an advanced degree, more than 4 years and more importantly, when you are done with your degree. Be able to put yourself in a position you don't ever have to depend on a man for anything, but do you know why, sweetheart? So I can be independent daddy?

A great answer!! So that if and when you eventually decide to get married, your fiancé will be less likely to take you for granted and if you decide to have his children and end up kicking him to the curb, you will be able to take care of them.

The only question, are you going to learn these lessons the easy way or the hard way. ? When you think you know all the answers, I am going to teach you a big secret! Probably the best person to speak with is your mom, dad, aunt, grandma. They have probably already made the same mistake, you are about to make , but they won't admit to it, because they are mom and dad!

When you think you have meet the right guy. Mom , Dad, I'm in love , lust, love. Mom and I are going to ask you 3 simple questions? About this guy and if you can't answer them, you've got no business getting married to this guy, let alone having his children!

Question number 1 , what is this guy like when he under stress? Men can be totally different ANIMALS, when they are under stress.

Question number 2: is a trick question on your moms part. Our daughter has worked really hard to get where she is in her life and I know as her mother, she is not going to bring home an idiot. As my daughters fiancé , what is your definition of asset protection?

Sweetheart the point is, isn't amazing how men will spend all their time money and energy on their job, kids, car and home and 10,15 years down the road it all blows to hell because the man didn't have enough sense to admit to himself , that he does not have the communication skills that woman need and take a marriage counseling course, psychology, before he meet you, let alone propose.

No men will wait until you have 1 foot out the door , with the children, . Then he will take marriage counseling, when it virtually darn near to late.

The 3rd and finally question is on the part of dad. Son if you intend to marry my daughter, can you explain to me , as her father the difference between sex and making love, you mean there is a difference?

Sweetheart, the point is, if you are truly an independent woman, and dependency is a dirty word. Can you look me in the eyes as your father, and honestly tell me you can depend on this guy emotionally, intellectually and spiritually? If you can't, then why are you wasting your time with him the bedroom?

Well then daddy how do I know if I have the right guy? Great question. Have you noticed yet how old people, that have been married 30, 40, 50 years resemble and look like one another yet? Yes

Sweetheart , if your friends are teasing you in pretty short order, what's up with you guys as a couple. You look like one another, cousins, brother, sister? Wait to hear this. Just because you can make a relationship work does not mean a guy is worth your time.

If your friends don't tease you like this, then you have to ask yourself, is this guy a bad boy , that appeals to your maternal instincts and you think you are going to fix him? You may as well go gag on a spoon! Water finds it own level , and you will attract who you are!!!

Sadly sweetheart, when you forget, or choose to ignore what this old truck driver tried to teach you. Who pays the price ?? Someone is going to pay some rather serious consequences, who do you think that might be sweetheart?

I will dad, nope, you are an independent self sufficient woman, guess again. My husband after we get divorced., still the wrong answer sweetheart. Sadly, with a heavy heart , it is your children , that are going to pay the price. So choose wisely sweetheart, some decisions are not reversible
