

AN AMERICAN CREED--???? DEAN ALFANGE

I do not choose to be a common man
It is my right to be uncommon...
If I can. I seek opportunity... Not security

I do not wish to be a kept citizen,
Humbled and dulled by having the state to dream and build, to Fail and succeed.

I refuse to barter incentive for a dole.
I prefer the challenges of life to the Guaranteed existence; the thrill of Fulfillment to the stale calm of utopia.

I will not trade freedom for beneficence
Nor my dignity for a hand out. I will Never cower before any master nor bend
To any threat.

It is my heritage to stand erect,
Proud, and unafraid; to think and act for Myself; enjoy the benefits of my
Creation; and to face the world boldly
And say, " This I have done with my hand,
I am a man. I am an American.

" Some people see things as they are and say why ? I dream things that never were and say, why not?"
